

SACOSS & RED CROSS PRESENT
REDUCING & MANAGING
CLIMATE RISK & EMERGENCIES
IN THE HEALTH AND COMMUNITY SERVICES SECTORS

Workshop Modules

Module One: Climate risk and the impact of Emergencies

- How climate impact and emergencies relate to your organisational service delivery
- Climate change overview- impact of extreme weathers
- Communities at risk in emergencies framework
- State Emergency Management structure overview- understanding roles
- Shared responsibility of community service sector in response to emergencies

[Setting the Scene]

Module Two: Organisational Preparedness & Increasing Awareness of risk assessment tools

- Hazard mapping at community & organisational level
- Increase awareness of risk assessment tools available
- Introduction to risk management strategies
- Access to disaster resilience capacity building resources

[Mapping Activity]

Module Three: Building Resilient Organisations & Clients

- Existing networks and groups- importance of value based connections
- Evaluate organisational resilience in supporting clients
- Explore gaps in service and identify localised actions to build organisational resilience
- Increase participation in emergency planning and preparedness
- Enable better collaboration between organisations

[Scenario activity]

Additional Module: Reaching the hard to reach communities (to be offered case-by-case basis based on feedback from pre-workshop surveys)

[Provide resources to different tools, agency links, Red Cross/agency trainings, including ongoing support availability from SACOSS]

