

Telecommunications costs in regional SA

$38.72

Average telecommunications expenditure per week in regional SA households

SOUTH AUSTRALIA

South Australian regional telecommunications expenditure is 76% of the average telecommunications spend in Adelaide

People in regional SA are using LESS telecommunications but paying MORE for it

The Australian Digital Inclusion Index rates regional South Australia at 45.0 for telecommunications affordability

This is less than the SA average, which at 49.3 is the second lowest score for all states and territories in Australia

45.0

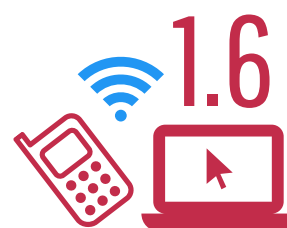

22%

Percentage of households in regional South Australia NOT accessing the internet at home

This is compared to a rate of 15.5% in the Adelaide region

1.6

Amount of GB available per $1 spent on data in regional SA

Regional South Australians get 30% less data per dollar than Adelaide consumers